

8 Powers of the Managing Committee :

The meeting shall be considered will be authorized to manage the affairs of the society and other institution run by it

9 Quorum of Meeting

The meeting shall be considered valid if at least five out of the seven members are present in the meeting where matters shall be decided by majority votes. The committee shall meet at least thrice a year. The time, place and date of the meeting all by the president.

10 Position of the president :

The office of the President shall be permanent. He may nominate any member on behalf or the majority of members can elect the said person.

11 Powers of office-bearers:
a) President:

He will preside over all the meetings of the General Body Managing Committee and other function in his absence the Vice - President shall deputes for him

b) The President and Vice-President shall look after the affairs of the institution run by society beside actively supervising the day to day working of the society .

c) The President shall exercise casting vote in case of a tie. He will normally lead all deputations that the society send out .

d) He will manage all functions, parties etc

e) He can sanction ten day's leave to any employee of the society.

f) He can impose a fine of Rs 100/- on any employee of society on receipt of complaint from the society and can suspend and dismiss the defaulting employee. Committee.

ii Vice-President :

In the absence of the President, the Vice - President shall deputes for him carry out all the functions normally done by the President .

iii Secretary :

a) He shall issue notices with the permission of the president to call meeting of the General Body and Managing committee.

b) He will record and maintain the proceeding of General Body and Managing Committee meeting and will execute the resolution passed at these meetings

c) He will maintain the records of the society and will issue cheques for payments of bills as approved by the president .

